Tulips & the Rhine

Embark on a mesmerizing 7-night river cruise through the Netherlands, France, and Germany,, culminating in the enchanting beauty of Switzerland. Immerse yourself in a captivating journey filled with alluring history, awe-inspiring architecture, and nature.

Begin your adventure in Amsterdam and cruise the canals fronted by stately Dutch Golden Age mansions. In Cologne, admire the twin-spired Gothic Cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and take in the city's medieval history. Enjoy a leisurely stroll along the Rhine Promenade in Koblenz and take some time to relax in a cafe or beer garden.

Explore the Palace Gardens at Heidelberg Castle, one of Germany's most famous landmarks overlooking the city, or visit the Wilhelm-Hack-Museum in Ludwigshafen to see an impressive collection of modern and contemporary art featuring works by famous artists from around the world. Visit Strasbourg's wine cellars and half-timbered homes in "La Petite France," and hike beneath the Black Forest evergreen canopy of Grimm's fairy tales. Before ending your journey in Basel, visit Breisach, a lovely German town resting among rolling vineyards.
