Oregon State University Alumni Association

Dear OSU alumni and friends,

Join us on an exploration of Greek culture and history as we focus our attention on the Peloponnese, one of the most beautiful and storied areas of Greece.

We'll spend five nights in Kalamata, the city famous for the eponymous olives grown in the region, and discover the cultural wealth of this corner of Greece. Spend your days visiting the spectacular ancient cities of Mycenae and Messene, an off-the-beaten path gem; strolling through the ruins of Sparta; walking in the footsteps of the first Olympians in the original 2,500-year-old stadium; and marveling at the stunning Byzantine city of Mystras. Learn about the importance of olives in Greek daily life and visit a winery. You'll gaze at the sunset during a cruise of the scenic Messinian Gulf and even have the opportunity to join in a festive Greek dance. Plus, three nights in Athens allow you to see the Acropolis and other highlights of the Greek capital.

You'll enjoy comfortable accommodations, ample meals, engaging insights from expert local guides and speakers, plus worry-free travel, thanks to a dedicated Travel Director. With all these fantastic elements, this trip is guaranteed to be popular. Act now to make your dream a reality!

Kalamata

Day 1 | In Transit

Depart your gateway city for Athens, Greece. 🚗

Day 2 | Athens, Greece

Upon arrival, transfer ➡ to the NJV Athens Plaza Hotel.

Gather with your fellow travelers for a Welcome Dinner to kick off your Greek odyssey.

Day 3 | Athens

Athens City Tour. Get acquainted today with illustrious Athens, the birthplace of democracy. Admire the Academy of Athens, University of Athens, the National Library and other highlights on a panoramic tour. Then, travel up to the resplendent Acropolis with monuments built by ancient Greece’s finest architects, sculptors and artists in the fifth century B.C. Take in the Parthenon’s classical lines and sweeping city views. Later, at the Acropolis Museum, view superb artifacts from the Acropolis’ slopes and look through a glass floor to study the ruins of an ancient neighborhood. (Active)

Free Time: The rest of the day is at leisure.

Day 4 | Mycenae | Kalamata

After checking out of the hotel, head toward Kalamata on the Peloponnese’s southern coast.

Mycenae & Greek Wine. Take a guided tour of the impressive ruins of Mycenae, one of the oldest archaeological sites on the Peloponnese. The Mycenaean civilization flourished during the second millennium B.C. and was home to Agamemnon, the king who conquered Troy, according to Greek mythology. Imagine this fortified city in all its glory as you walk under the imposing Lion’s Gate. Then, sample fine Greek wines with lunch at a winery. (Active) Continue to Kalamata and check in to the Pharae Palace Hotel.

Enrichment: Greek History.

As a special welcome to Kalamata, enjoy a cocktail and a wonderful buffet dinner tonight.

Day 5 | Kalamata | Messene

Enrichment: Classical Greece.

Kalamata’s History & Cuisine. Stroll with your guide in Kalamata’s charming old town and learn about the city’s tumultuous past. As you listen to stories of Kalamata’s history and see points of interest, stop to taste traditional foods like their world-famous, fruity, sharp olives and fresh seafood.

Try more specialties at lunch in the old town.

Messene. This afternoon, take a guided tour of an under-the-radar gem, the splendid, vast ruins of Messene set in a serene mountain

Winery visit

Ruins of Ancient Olympia

valley. Unlike other sites, this ancient city built around 369 B.C. was largely untouched by subsequent settlements, so its remains are remarkably intact. See its grand stadium, temples, agora, theater and more. (Active)

Day 6 | Sparta | Mystras

Sparta, Mystras & the Greek Olive. Along your route to Mystras, stop to see the ruins of ancient Sparta, one of Greece's most powerful city-states. Then, travel to the stunning ruins of Mystras above the Laconian plain. In 1249, a Frankish prince built a castle there, which fell into the hands of the Byzantine Empire 13 years later. Over the next two centuries, Mystras evolved into the most important Byzantine city in the southern Peloponnese. On a guided tour, admire the monasteries, chapels and churches adorned with frescoes. Finally, tour Sparta's Museum of the Olive and Greek Olive Oil, which details why the olive is prized by the Greeks. (Active)

Archaeological Museum, Olympia

Day 7 | Ancient Olympia

Ancient Olympia. This sacred site dedicated to Zeus was the celebrated birthplace of the ancient Olympic Games, which were first played in his honor in 776 B.C. See where renowned sporting events were held, learn what the earliest Olympic games were like and stand at the runners' original starting line in the stadium! After seeing the Temples of Zeus and Hera, visit the Archaeological Museum, which houses sculptures from the temples, bronze artifacts and other finds.

Free Time: Choose a nice place in Olympia for lunch before returning to Kalamata.

🌐AHI Connects | Greek Night. Opa! Join hands for a joyful Kalamatianos folk dance at a fun-filled party with food, wine and music!

Day 8 | Kalamata

Enrichment: Contemporary Greece.

Free Time: Create your own agenda today! Unwind on the hotel's beach or relish a drink and lovely views at the rooftop lounge. Tonight, embark on a sunset cruise along the Messinian Bay and raise a toast to your adventure with farewell drinks on board.

Day 9 | Corinth | Athens

After checking out this morning, depart Kalamata for Athens with a stop in Corinth during your journey.

Corinth. Follow your guide on a fascinating walk through the archaeological site of ancient Corinth, featuring the Temple of Apollo and ruins from the Roman era when Corinth was a major colony and thriving center of trade. Afterward, marvel at the Corinth Canal from a bridge over the water. This deep, man-made waterway separates the Peloponnese from the mainland and first opened in 1893.

Check in to the NJV Athens Plaza Hotel.

Free Time: Enjoy your final afternoon and evening in Athens at leisure.
